

American presidents, Supreme Court justices, and prominent members of the bar and bench who have been initiated into Phi Delta Phi include:

- Howard H. Baker, Jr.
- James A. Baker, III
- Birch E. Bayh
- Hugo Black
- Robert H. Bork
- William J. Brennan
- Ellen Burns
- Benjamin N. Cardozo
- Pamela Carter
- Archibald Cox
- Gerald R. Ford
- Joyce Hens Green
- Charles Evans Hughes
- Daniel K. Inouye
- Henry M. Jackson
- Thomas Penfield Jackson
- Leon Jaworski
- Anthony M. Kennedy
- Robert F. Kennedy
- Patrick Leahy
- Karl Llewellyn
- Thurgood Marshall
- William McKinley
- Gerald T. McLaughlin
- Edwin Meese, III
- Walter Mondale
- Malcolm W. Monroe
- Sandra Day O'Connor
- R. Thomas Olson
- Samuel Pierce, Jr.
- Lewis F. Powell, Jr.
- William L. Prosser
- Dana Rasmussen
- Sam Rayburn
- William H. Rehnquist
- Stephen R. Reinhardt
- Owen J. Roberts
- Franklin D. Roosevelt
- Theodore Roosevelt
- Antonin Scalia
- Myra C. Selby
- William French Smith
- Kenneth W. Starr
- John Paul Stevens
- Adlai Stevenson
- Potter Stewart
- William H. Taft
- Earl Warren
- Byron R. White
- Wendell Willkie

Prominent members of the bench, bar, and political community from Canada include:

- Rosalie Abella
- Lincoln Alexander
- W. Ian Binnie
- Archie Campbell
- Jules Deschenes
- Alan B. Gold
- Peter Hogg
- Paul S. A. Lamek
- John Aird
- Claire L'Heureux-Dubé
- Lauren Marshall
- Roland Martland
- R. Roy McMurtry
- Daniel R. Michner
- John W. Morden
- William D. Parker
- Robert J. Pirie
- Bob Rae
- James B. Southey
- John Napier Turner

Notable members from Mexico and Guatemala include:

- Luisa de Padilla
- Fernando Elizondo
- Francisco Garcia Jimeno
- José Gomez Gordo
- Francisco José Castillo L. Genera
- David Gongora Pimentel
- Arturo Salinas-Martinez
- Luis Santos
- Ricardo Sagastume
- Pedro Zorilla